

Pastor Larry's Paragraph

To the Graduate: (copied)

We're very proud of you and of your graduation,
 And we send love to you with warm congratulations.
 In distinguishing yourself, you've distinguished us too,
 For we have shared your dream that's finally coming true.
 You are an achiever and a dreamer at heart,
 But it's your achievement that sets you apart.
 Go dream your grander dreams, we're very proud of you,
 And may you keep on climbing till all your dreams come true.

With Father's Day coming this month, I thought I might share a few manly words of wisdom:

- No man ever injured his eyesight by looking on the bright side of things
- He who stands tallest, kneels the most
- You may give without loving, but you can't love without giving
- If you want a rainbow, you have to put up with the rain
- You can't have a good day with a bad attitude
- You can't have a bad day with a good attitude
- You cannot do a kindness too soon, because you never know how soon it will be too late
- It's hard to stumble when you're on your knees
- Seven days without prayer makes one weak
- The most important thing a father can do for his children is to love their mother

Serving with Gladness,
Pastor Larry

The "Storehouse" Report

First of all, I feel that among God's children I am most blessed. E.J., words cannot express my thanks to you, your family and Sunday school class for all the work you are doing with the Storehouse Ministry. The "conference room" is outstanding! Just thanks for getting it done! Working with you and all the volunteers certainly enhances my life. Butch, your faithfulness touches my heart too. It seems lately we have had special favor, with an abundant supply of food, to help meet many needs. Many that come through our campus have more issues than just needing food. We try to serve with open hands and hearts to help make a difference. I believe our ministry is a light to our community and we are letting it shine brightly because of our love for Jesus and our fellow-man. The challenges we have are nothing compared to the joy of service. If I sound excited and blessed to serve through the Storehouse Ministry, I am! I am serving with the very best volunteers, (sorry not to mention all names) including Pastor Larry, BCBC and Pastor Gary, EUM and we are pressing on!
